Illinois State University

Office of the President 1000

Welcome to the 1992-93 Academic Year.

We at Illinois State University are pleased to have you on campus for a new year.

ISU offers a wide variety of academic and cultural programs and activities which combine for one of the best undergraduate experiences in the State of Illinois. Many academic and social events have been scheduled for this coming year with the goal of providing something for every interest. Part of the value of your college education will be gained through taking advantage of opportunities to interact with diverse groups and to become involved with new and interesting endeavors.

Programs are designed to assist you in the pursuit of your formal education, as well as to offer opportunities for you to become involved in extracurricular activities. I encourage you to utilize these programs and services in order to make your year a productive and rewarding one.

Best wishes for a successful and enjoyable academic year.

Regards,

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF REGGIE REDBIRD!

You may be wondering who this strange, bird-like creature is, but by the time you have earned your diploma here, Reggie will have become a familiar face! There is never a dull moment when Reggie Redbird, ISU's charismatic mascot, is around!

Below: Reggie stops and visits with some students on ISU's quad.

WELCOME TO ISU!

FROM YOUR
STUDENT BODY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

We're Here !!!

What we're all about...

The Student Body Board of Directors are here to work for you. Together, the president, vice president, and six directors, provide services and awareness of the available opportunities to you. We are here, in coordination with other students, committees and organizations, to service you and the ISU community with the programs, services, and representation you deserve.

Through this office you will find information on your rights as a student, the legal services available to you, how to get involved in activities and organizations, and what you can do for your community and environment.

We are here for you to answer your questions and take your suggestions. It is thru our board of widely diverse students that we plan to represent the ISU community and your needs. Come in, our doors are open to you.

A Letter From the President

On behalf of the student body, I welcome you to the university. You have embarked on a career of education at ISU and whether this is your fifth year or your first, I am here to help.

My job as a leader is to represent you, the student body. I represent your needs to the university administrators, and other student and town leaders. But, to effectively do this, I need to hear from you.

I wish you the best through your days at ISU and beyond. You are paying for a great education; get involved to insure you that you receive one.

I look forward to seeing you on campus. Please stop by my office at the student services building if you have any questions or concerns, or just want to say Hello.

Sincerely,

Randy Fox
Student Body President

GOALS FOR THIS YEAR

SURVIVAL TIPS FOR

Get to know the quad.
An overview of the lit-
up at night.

West Campus in the winter (Above) Left:
Orientation leaders at their finest!

INCOMING STUDENTS

Remember that you probably irritate your roommate as much as he/she irritates you.
Keep your room neat on weekends—parents are known for surprise visits.

Don't overindulge at your first party, especially if you have homework due the next day.

Stock up on plenty of popcorn and peanut butter.
Separate underwear and jeans in the wash.

Pizza and beer are very fattening.

Weekends start on Thursdays.

Be careful—long distance calls add up.

Be friendly—we are all in this together.

It is not always good to move in with your best friend.

Get to know your professors, it helps when grade time comes.

Take your student ID wherever you go—you will be lost without it.

Never start a five page paper the night before it is due.

Most of all, enjoy your college years while they last—they will be over before you know it.

GO REDBIRD ATHLETICS

ISU Fight Song
Go you Redbirds on to battle
fight for ISU
Raise the banner
red and white,
to this emblem
we'll be true
So let us cheer the Redbirds
on to victory
Every voice proclaimed:
We've got the fight,
We've got the might,
Let's win this game tonight

RESIDENCE HALL LIVING

Below: You may have chosen Watterson Towers as your first choice for dorm living. Watterson Towers is the largest residence hall in the world! It was named in honor of the late Dr. Aurthur Watterson, Head of ISU's Geography department and a prominent community leader. This dual 27 story hall was built in 1967 and it houses over 2400 students! Below Left: Students enjoy playing sand volleyball in the quad between Dunn and Barton halls.

FRIENDS FOR A LIFETIME

There are many people that we meet in our lives, but only a very few that make lasting impressions on your minds and hearts. It is these people that we will think of often and who will always remain important to us as true friends.

TAKE A LOOK

You'll find this stained-glass seal at the entrance to Milner library, if you ever get there freshman year.

The first nice day of spring you'll find everybody hanging out on the quad! You can catch the best rays there!

The view from the top of Waterson Towers. You can see for miles and miles.

WHERE IT'S AT

Practice up on your sand volleyball techniques. Soon it will be named the official sport of ISU.

The quad is always deserted during class times, and especially on cloudy days!

WHERE EXCEL

“There are few earthly things more beautiful than a University. It is a place where those who hate ignorance may strive to know, where those who perceive truth may strive to make others see; where seekers and learners alike banded together in the search of knowledge, will honor thought in all its finer ways will welcome thinkers in distress or in exile, will uphold ever the dignity of thought and learning and will exact standards in these things. They give to the young in their impressionable years the bond of a lofty purpose shared, of a great corporate life whose links will not be loosed until they die. They give young people that close companionship for which youth longs, and that chance of the endless discussion of the themes which are endless, without which youth would seem a waste of time

—John Masefield

Twas the night before finals,
And all through the college,
The students were praying for last-minute knowledge.

Most were quiet sleepy,
But none touched their beds,
While visions of essays
Danced in their heads.

Out in the taverns,
A few were still drinking,
And hoping that liquor
Would loose up their thinking.

In my own apartment,
I had been pacing,
And dreading exams
I soon would be facing.

My roommate was speechless,
His nose in his book,
And my comments to him
Drew unfriendly looks.

I drained all the coffee,
And brewed a new pot,
No longer caring
That my nerves were shot.

I stared at my notes,
But my thoughts were muddy,
My eyes went ablur.
I just couldn't study.

"Some pizza might help,"
I said with a shiver,
But each place I called
Refused to deliver.

I'd nearly concluded
That life was too cruel,
With futures depending
On grades had in school,

When all of a sudden,
Our door opened wide,
And Patron Saint Put-It-Off
Ambled inside.

His spirit was careless,
His manner was mellow,
But, seeing our state,
He started to bellow:

"What kind of student
Would make such a fuss,
To toss back at teachers
What they tossed at us?"

"On, Cliff's Notes! On, Cub Notes!
On, Last Year's Exams!
Oh, Wingit and Slingit,
And Last-Minute Crams!"

His message delivered,
He vanished from sight,
But we heard him laughing
Outside in the night.

"Your teachers have pegged you,
So just do your best.
Happy finals to all,
And to all, a good test."
